MAYOR ALEX BOTTAUSCI WELCOMES THE END OF THE ELECTION AND THE ARRIVAL OF NEW COUNCIL

Dollard-des-Ormeaux, November 8, 2021 – Mayor Alex Bottausci welcomes the end of the elections as it defines who the newly elected councillors will be in Dollard-des-Ormeaux and thanks residents for exercising their civic duty as electors. “The residents have given us the privilege of representing them and we take this very seriously”, expressed the Mayor Bottausci.

“I am pleased to welcome and congratulate our new team of councillors to our council. After weeks and months of knocking on doors and speaking to residents about issues that are important to them, it is now time to work together in their best interests and I am confident that together, we will accomplish great things for our incredible city.”

Mayor Bottausci expresses that, “moving forward with a renewed council, the challenges of planning within a post pandemic reality must be addressed immediately in order to continue pursuing strategic, ambitious and innovative projects which reflect the growing needs of our community”.

The mayor extends his sincere gratitude to the councillors who were not re-elected, for their years of service to the community. He also thanked the staff at the city who worked hard over the last months to ensure the smooth functioning of the electoral process under strict Covid prevention protocols.
